OUR THEME

RESEARCH PAPERS, DEMANDING TEACHERS, AFTER SCHOOL JOBS, AFTER SCHOOL PRACTICE, A TON OF HOMEWORK, THREE TESTS TOMORROW, NO TIME TO TALK WITH FRIENDS, TRYING TO CRAM TOO MANY BOOKS INTO A MINIATURE LOCKER, AND LATE FOR CLASS AGAIN? LET'S FACE IT, SCHOOL IS INTENSE. NO WONDER YOU NEED A NAP THIRD PERIOD, RIGHT?! AS YOU LOOK THROUGH THESE MEMORIES OF THE 2009-2010 SCHOOL YEAR, WE HOPE THE STRESS FADES AWAY AND YOU REMEMBER AN INTENSE, BUT EXCITING, YEAR.

Fall: African Children's Choir Assembly

The faculty and students watched mesmerized as this children's troupe from Africa danced and sang songs of hope and inspiration.

The members of the troupe were young, but seemed comfortable in front of the audience.

They were enthusiastic as they sang songs of hope.

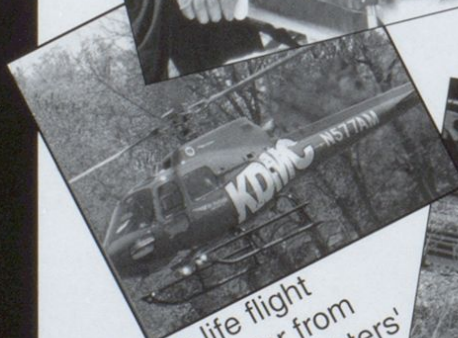

Spring: Drunk Driving Assembly

Students gathered on the parking lot to watch community firefighters, police, and rescue workers perform a reenactment of a drunk-driving scene. The purpose of the assembly was to warn students of the dangers of driving while impaired by alcohol and drugs.

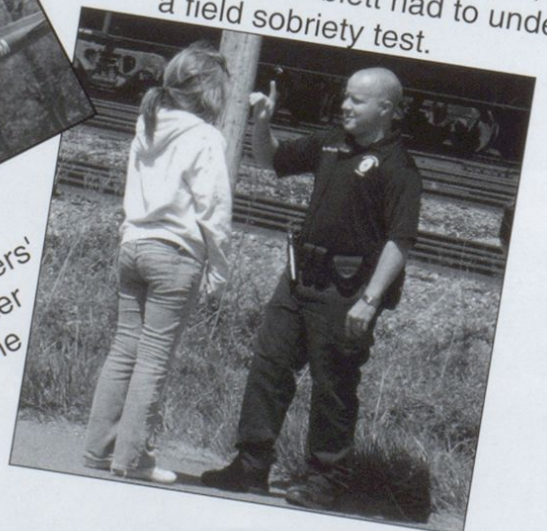

Rescue workers extracted victim Brian Caudill from the car.

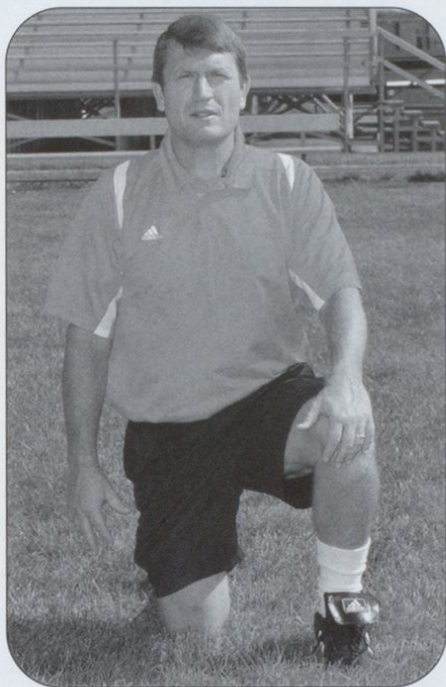

The life flight helicopter from Kings' Daughters' Medical Center landed on the lawn.

As the driver in this scene, Katie Bramblett had to undergo a field sobriety test.

Reflections Of Pride

Coach Randy Vanderhoof

Coach Randy Vanderhoof resigned as our football coach in May. He spent 13 seasons coaching our Rams. His love for the game extends back to his own playing days as a Ram; he graduated from RWHS in 1980. Local sports writer Mark Maynard said of Coach Vanderhoof, "He raised the bar for Ram football so high that he's made his successor's job even more difficult," (The Independent, May 20, 2010). Coach Vanderhoof will remain as our baseball coach and a business teacher, so we will still have the benefit of his influence. Congratulations on the records you've set, the lives you've impacted, and the respect you've brought to our Raceland Rams, Coach 'Hoof!

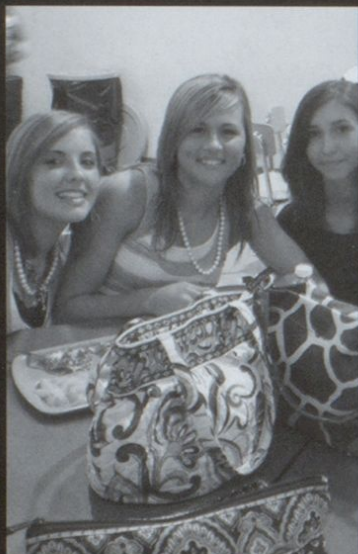

Congratulations

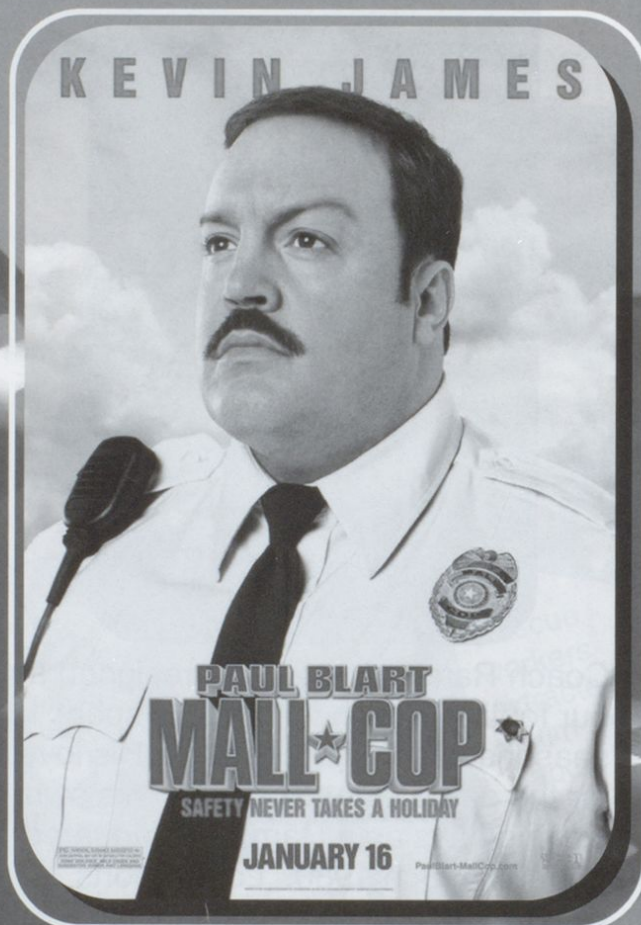

Retirees: At Central Office, Sandy Pack (Special Education Director) retired last July and Faye Morrison (Food Service Clerk) retired this year. We thank both for their years of service at Raceland and wish each a happy retirement!

Mischa Dixon is our school system's new Director of Special Education. She is the wife of Mickey Dixon, assistant principal of R.W.H.S. Welcome to the Ram family!

Last Day "Picnic"

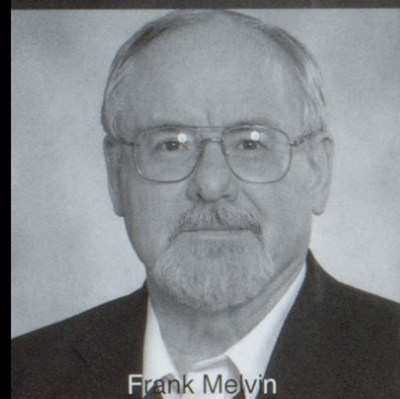

This year, we enjoyed the last day of school in the auditorium watching "Paul Blart Mall Cop," and then we met outside in the picnic area to grab our lunch and head to the cafeteria to enjoy it.
