TUNING IN THE SMILES

G.C.H.S. students starred in many prime-time shows in '92 with outstanding performances in academics, athletics, and extra-curricular events. From rehearsal to showtime, G.C. students honed their skills which paid off both in and out of the classroom. Above, Bill Baker and friends clowned around and Lori Morton represented the friendliness found in G.C. students.

THE ENDLESS VARIETY

OF GREENUP COUNTY

Regular programming was pre-empted often to make way for special presentations, G.C. students won't forget the Pointless Sisters (a.k.a. Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Stephens, and Mrs. Fosson) as they presented their version of "I'm So Excited."

Starring in student-produced activities filled the school year in '92. G.C. students and staff participated wholeheartedly in every activity imaginable. Prime-time TV has nothing on us! Right: Kendra Mowery on Hat Day. Below: Alisha Lozier and Crystal Antis and John Woods showed their G.C. spirit in different ways.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT LIFE AT G.C. OFFERED SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE.! Right: Santa listened to Jason Gammon's holiday requests. Below: Katrina Abdon on Dress-Up Day which also brought out a group of assorted ghouls and one beauty, otherwise known as fellow classmates. Whatever the activity, G.C.'s multi-talented students constantly provided us with our own "Entertainment Tonight." On with the Show!

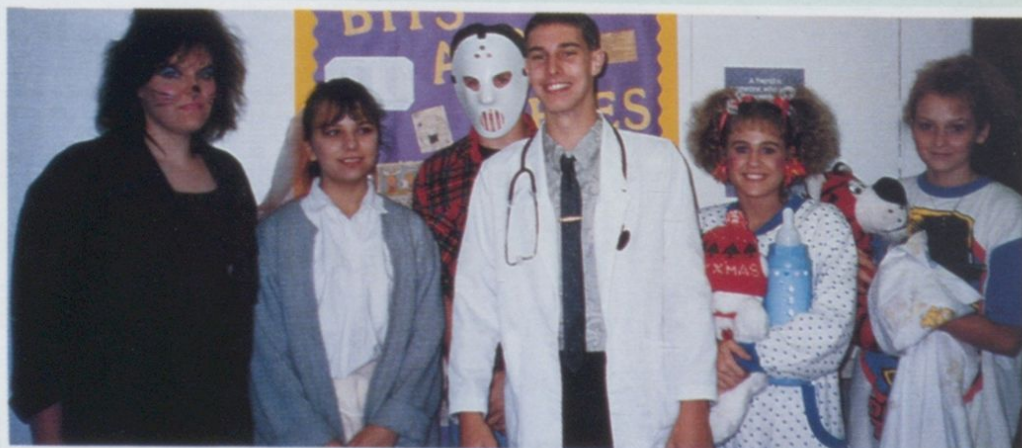

Field events during FHA's Battle of the Clubs displayed varying degrees of talent, but provided much entertainment for the fans. Top: Although she participated gamely, Vanessa Stambaugh really didn't like the taste of that baby food! Left: Tug of War, as always, was one of the most competitive events. Above: The wheelbarrow race provided lots of laughs.

Kevin Stith works in Smart Manufacturing Company, a program originating in Jerry Miller's class which emphasized how the free market system works. The program is for students not attending vocational school.

A BUSY LIFE AT G.C.

Below Left: Trooper Kistner looked over the action. Below: Sunshine Williams and Billy Jewell looked all too realistic as accident victims. Bottom: The crash vehicles.

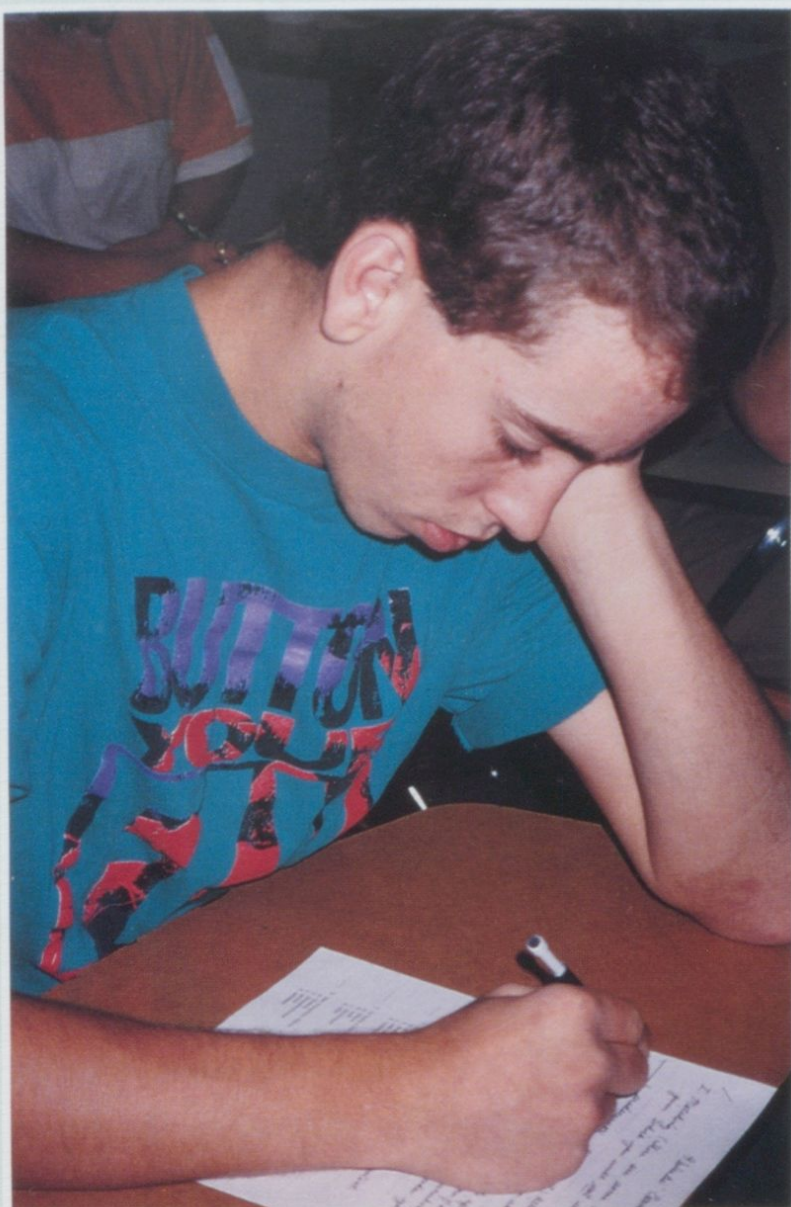

G.C. students were stunned into silence at the simulated fatal accident staged in front of the home side bleachers. The drama class was made up with realistic make-up that turned even strong stomachs. Through cooperation with local fire departments, rescue squads, Denny's Auto, and local and state police, an eerie sense of reality was achieved by the mock disaster. Everything was handled just as it would be in an actual accident, and the sense of finality hit home. Trooper Kistner ended the event on a serious note with a talk to G.C. students.

MOCK DIASTER BRINGS AWARENESS

CHANGING CHANNELS

Prime-time at G.C. meant artfully blending academics and activities in such a way that there was time for everything. At left, Eric Wireman, better known for his prowess on the football field, also knew how to hit the studies. Below Left: Our cooks got into the act on Halloween Dress-Up Day. Below Right: Members of the National Champion Dance Team enjoyed being honored upon their return home to G.C. Kim Warnock, Pam Clark, Melanie Biggs.

G.C. LIVE!

NATIONAL CHAMPS

Tune in to G.C. for award-winning shows. Bursting with pride, G.C. welcomed home an amazing total of four — that's right — four national champions! A year such as '92 doesn't come along that often, so pardon us if we bragged a little. Right: Both our Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleader Squads won National Championships with their dazzling routines. Below Right: G.C.'s Dance Team walked away with a national championship for their faultless choreography. Below Left: JROTC member Michael Boggs won national championship honors for his expert shooting ability. G.C. truly had a Walk of Champions in '92. Tune us in for a repeat performance

VALEDICTORIAN

CATHY RIGGS

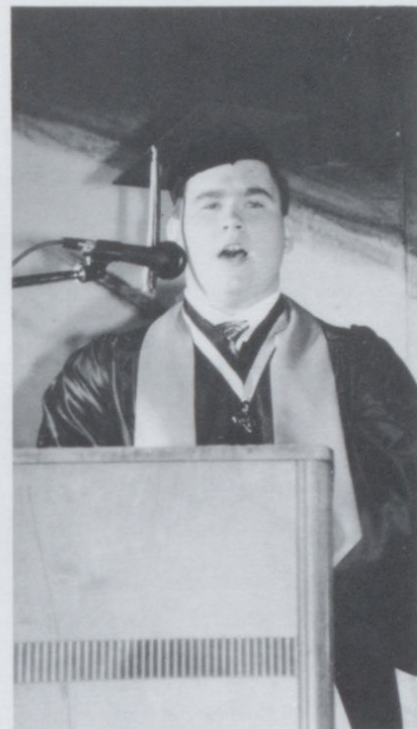

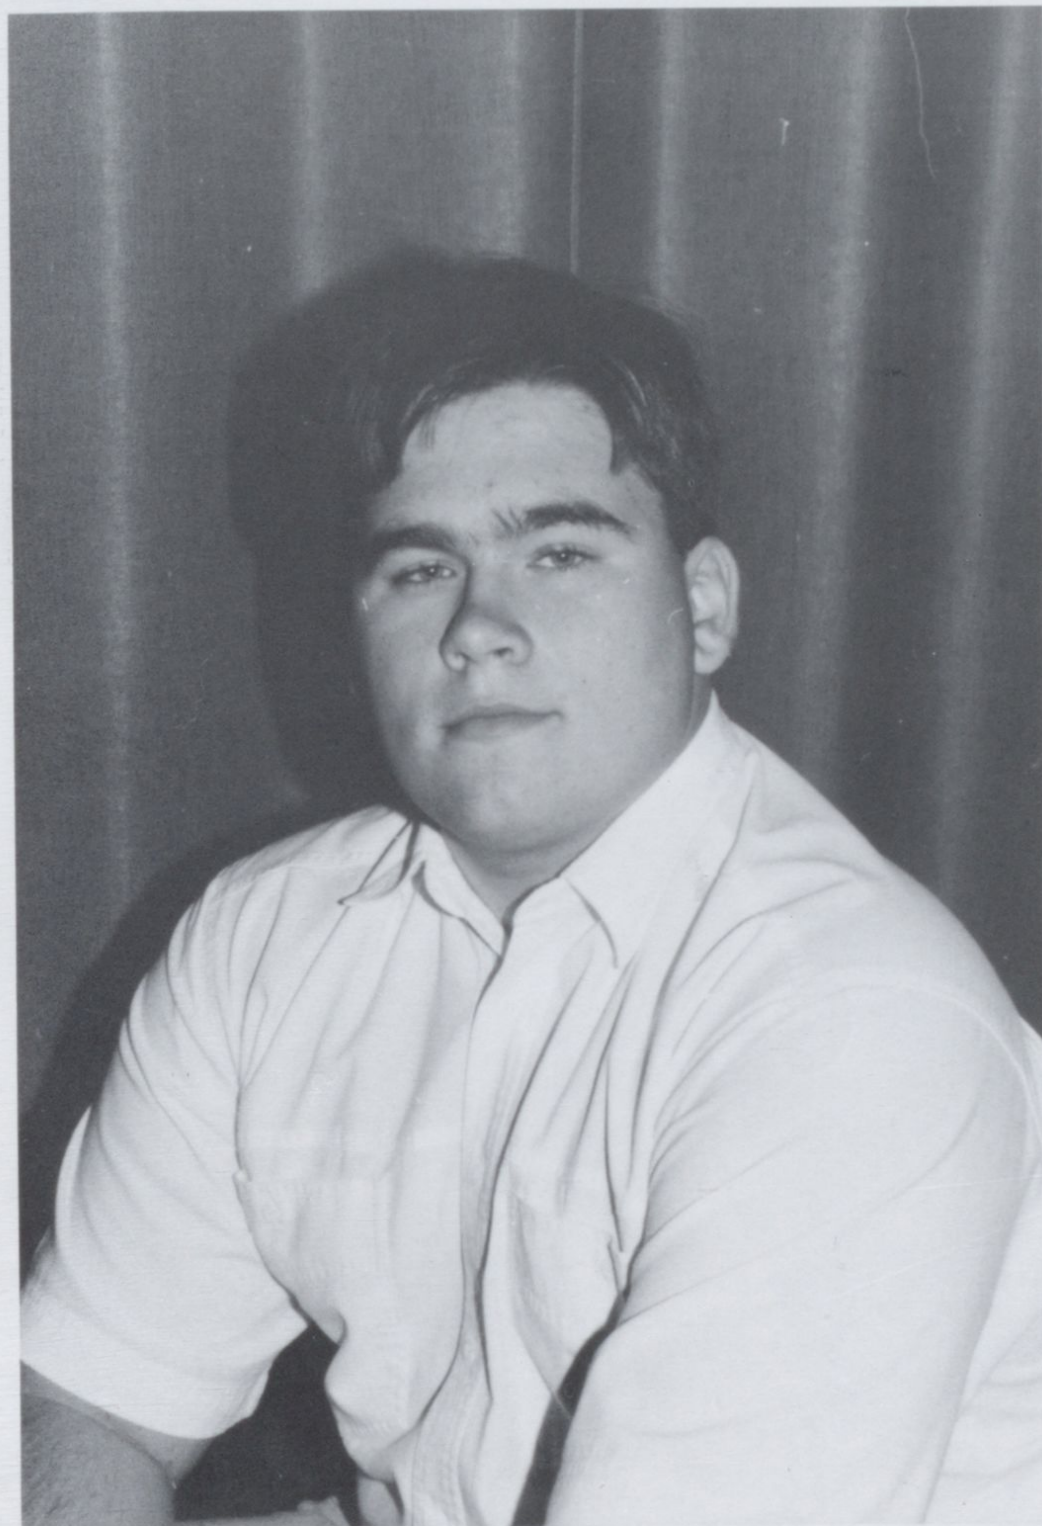

G.C.'s '92 Valedictorian was Cathy Riggs, daughter of Gail and Kathy Riggs of Wurtland. Cathy's G.C. activities included Lady Musketeer Basketball, Beta Club, SADD, Pep Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Senior Salutes. Having won a basketball scholarship, she will attend Alice Lloyd College.

SALUTATORIAN

JOEY BRAMBLETT

G.C.'s Salutatorian was Joey Bramblett, son of Daniel and Sharon Bramblett of Lloyd. Joey's G.C. activities included SADD, Yearbook Staff, Academic Team, Champions, and Senior Salute. His post-graduation plans will be pursued at Morehead State University.

SENIOR

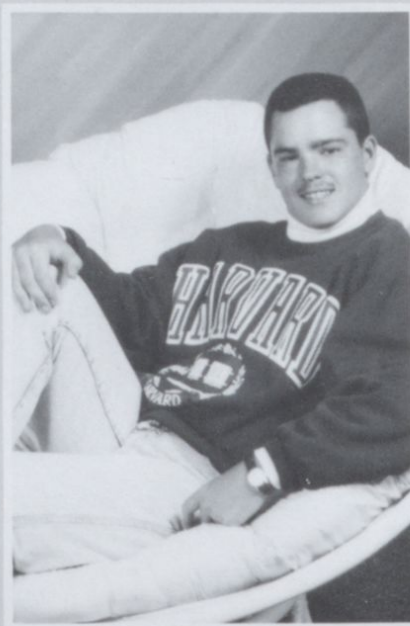

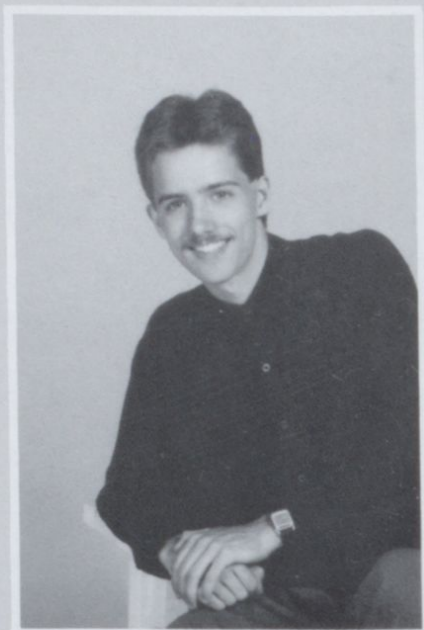

A L U T E S

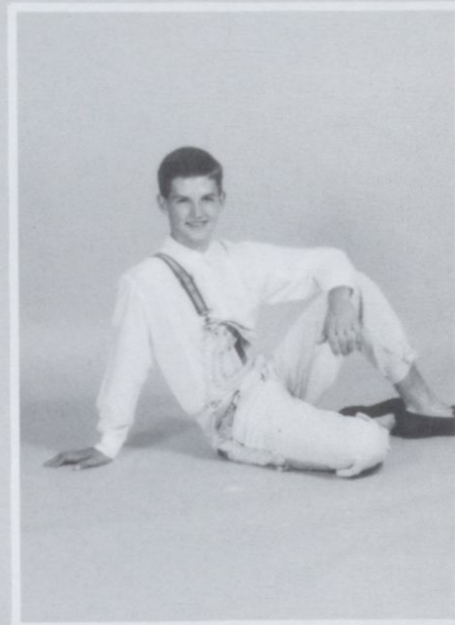

"To accomplish great things, we must not only act but also dream, not only plan but also believe." The great writer Anatole France might have tailor-made these words for our '92 Senior Salutes. They've dreamed, planned, and accomplished memorable things already, but the best is yet to come. Top Row: Malissa Keeton and Michael Horton. Bottom Row: Lee Ann Warnock and Shawna Virgin.

Deanna Patton and Christal Melvin.
Very Busy People!*

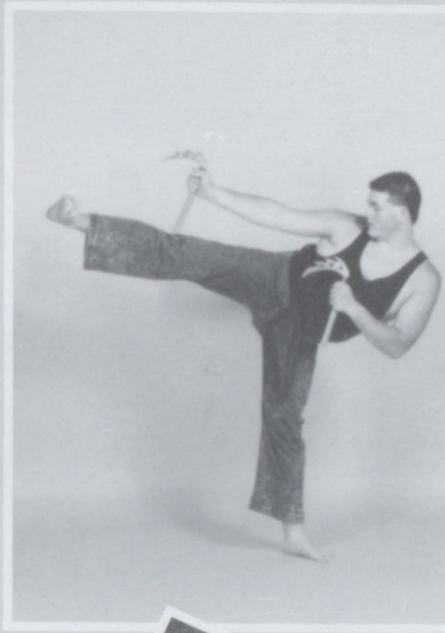

STARS OF THE SHOW

Organized, talented, resourceful — These words aptly describe these go-getter seniors who balanced school and extra-curricular activities quite nicely. Chosen on the basis of both academics and school/community involvement, these top twenty seniors represent the pride of G.C. The program is overseen by Mrs. Angela Biggs at the school and Mrs. Lettie Gullett from the Parent Resource Center. Top, Left to Right: Steve Tackett, Forest Gullett, and Anna Williams. Bottom: Carla Hennecke and Benji Thomas.

Top Row: Kristina Williamson and David Meade. Bottom Row: Joey Bramblett, Cathy Riggs, and Keva Alexander. Tomorrow and its promises belong to those who dream. The Senior Salutes pictured on these pages have their tomorrows firmly envisioned already. There's a special niche out there waiting just for achievers such as these.

Musketeer Football played tough, but had a rough time on the final scoreboard. Spirit, however, never faltered, and G.C.'s players gave a season-long, tremendous effort. Shown here are the vital elements of the squad.

MUSKETEER GOLF

G.C.'s Linksmen fared well in seasonal competition this year. They also had the experience of playing on many top-notch area golf courses. Perfecting the swing, gauging the distance, planning strategy — all this kept the team members quite busy. Below: The Team. Jamie Williamson, Chad James, Matt Harr, Tim Lambert, Keith Marshall. Brad Vanover, not pictured, was also on the team.

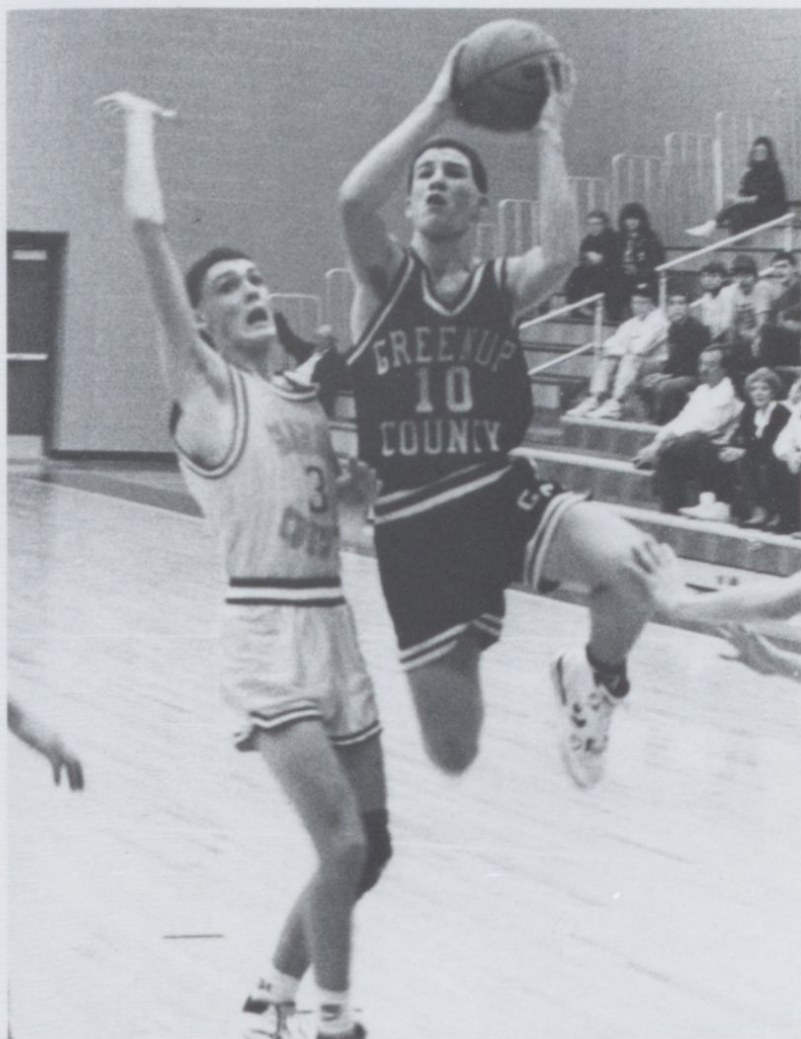

TUNING IN TO A SWEET SEASON

 Right: Coach Bob Bryson and Assistant Coach Tom Crump planned strategy during a break in the action. Returning to Coaching after a four year absence, Bryson coached a young team through an impressive season. To achieve depth, the Lady Musketeers looked to younger players. But the right combination was found and all the struggles paid off as team members utilized their quickness and enthusiasm.

THE LADY MUSKETEERS

Left: Traci Fannin played her options. Having 6'1" Cathy Riggs and 6'0" Teresa Robinson in the line-up gave G.C. plenty to build around. Size proved to be a G.C. strength as the team steadily worked its way to post-seasonal playoffs in the regional tournament.

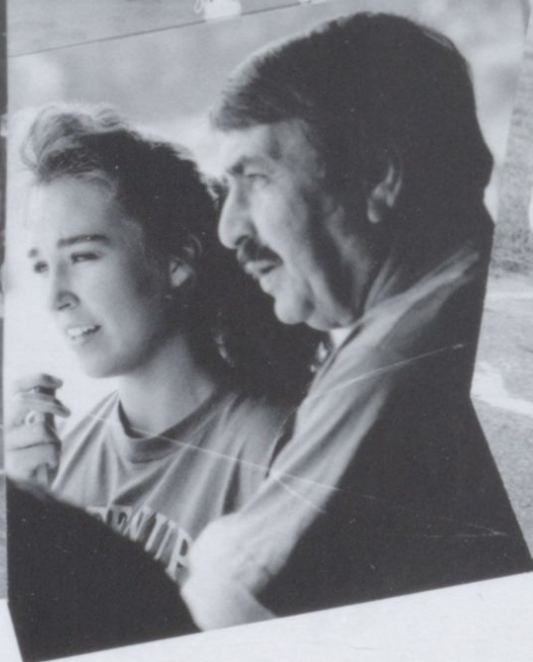

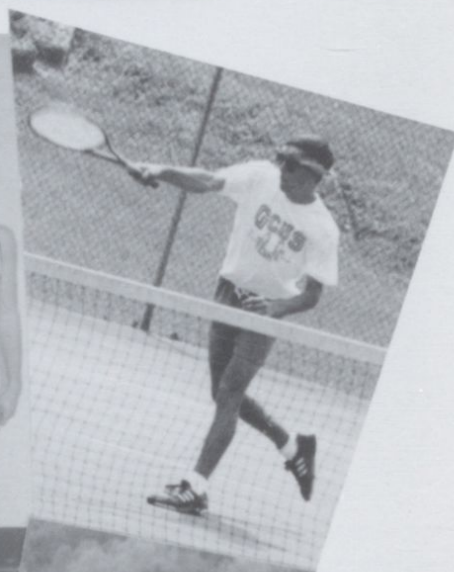

Team camaraderie was a key factor in the season's performance. Backing individual successes as well as team successes pulled team members together in an important way. Right: Christy Roar and Cathy Riggs battled for the ball. Below: Riggs was on the move. Below Right: When Cathy Riggs (better known as "Katie"), signed a letter of intent to play at Alice Lloyd College, friends and team members celebrated.

NATIONAL

G.C.'s cheerleading program, expanding on its past reputation for excellence, did the unprecedented in '92: For the first time in the thirteen year history of the competition, both the National Champion Varsity and Junior Varsity squads were from the same school — G.C.! Talk about proud! Right: G.C.'s #1 fan Mason Branham posed with Davy Jo Ferguson, Holly Roark, and Amy Wireman. Below: Lori Stultz, Heather Haydon, and Crystal Spriggs showed their enthusiasm.
