Senior Class History

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN:

As Freshmen... We elected Leona Sparks, Jerry Potter, Mildred Veach, and Mattie Lois Ferguson as our class officers... We were sponsored by Mr. Robert Hillman... Mattie Lois Ferguson was a candidate for Basketball Queen... Leona Sparks was elected Cheerleader... Gaylord Hall was elected Most Handsome Boy.

As highly polished Sophomores... Our vows were to work harder than ever before... Mr. Hillman steered our class with Gaylord Hall, Emory Burkhardt, and Paul Hicks as our class officers... We were very proud to have Ruth Bruce a candidate for Basketball Queen... We were unfortunate that year losing one of our dearest classmates, Ruth Bruce, on April 18, 1949.

We were the sophisticated Junior Class of Greenup High School... We elected Paul Leadingham, Emory Burkhardt, and Robert Coffee as our class officers... We were very proud to have Mrs. Oscar Sammons as our sponsor... Putting on our class play "Starr House"... Giving the dignified Seniors a Banquet and Prom... We accompanied the Senior Class on a trip to Mammoth Caves.

Our last year at G. H. S. soon flew by... We elected Jerry Potter, Mildred Veach, Mattie Ferguson, and Robert Coffee as our class officers... We were sponsored by Mrs. Oscar Sammons... Our class play "Uncle Josh Perkins"... We enjoyed a Spaghetti Supper at the home of our class sponsor... Gaylord Hall was elected Most Handsome Boy... Jerry Potter was runner-up for Basketball Queen... We know the four years spent at Greenup High will always be remembered as happy ones.
