Greenup County finished up a storybook season with a 36-2 record and only 2 runs short of the state championship. Ranked 19th nationally by USA today, this G.C. team obtained their first 16th region and sectional title along with becoming the first Greenup team to ever reach the final four. Above is Aaron McGlone, a 5-year starter, all-area player of the year, and instrumental to the success of this year's team. State and national fame was bestowed on Aaron as he beat out all contenders for the prestigious honor of being named Kentucky's Mr. Baseball. G.C. pride is really showing.

It All Adds Up To A National Championship

G.C.'s outstanding DANCE TEAM danced its way all the way to a national championship in Nashville. The ensemble parlayed its spirited dance routines into national recognition and were honored by their hometown people at a public reception upon their arrival back at the Greenhouse. Pictured at the top is the squad. First Row: Beth Baker, Andrea Law, Danika Barnett, Amanda Cremeans, Ella Pennington, Amanda Griffith. 2nd Row: Kristy Browning, Mary Nelson, Kristy Decker, Rebecca Mason, Vicki Griffith, Alexis Elswick, Jessica Underwood, Jessica Carl. Center Left: The team struts its stuff. Center Right: Team members hobnobbed with many celebrities, including Neil McCoy. Left: Jessica Underwood, Mary Nelson, and Danika Barnett.

A program which recognizes energy, enthusiasm, commitment, community involvement, and academic excellence, the Senior Salute Program was in full swing this year as it completed its eleventh year here at G.C. This year's elite group saw the usual abundance of school and community activities: Governor's Scholars, Beta Club, Field Commander, Youth Leadership, Sports, Church, 4-H, Flag Corps, Youth Advisory--just name it and these outstanding Seniors have been involved! They've mastered that balancing act required to juggle hectic schedules. G.C. is proud!

SENIOR SALUTES '96

Valedictorians '96

G.C.'s three valedictorians are no strangers to hard work and sacrifice, and that made the moment sweeter as they reached their dreams. Brian made history as he came across the wires and onto the big screen and delivered his valedictory address by remote from his state baseball playoff game. These three have proven that life is a series of choices, and they obviously have made all the correct ones. Pictured at left are three top honor students: Ryan Hart, Brian Allen, and Crystal Maynard.

Salutatorians '96

Hard work and determination paid off for the three seniors who were named G.C.'s 1996 Salutatorians. While these students placed a high emphasis on academics, they also enjoyed activities outside school.

Pictured at left are our three Salutatorians: Amy Quillen, David Wilkerson, and Christiane Tussey. The best is still yet to come for these honor students.

CLASS OF '96---
What a year we've had! The good times,
the friendships---
these are the pieces of G.C. that will linger in our hearts.
Here's to the Green,
Black, and Gold!!

Everywhere we look around the busy halls of G.C., we see all sorts of activities involving G.C. students. We never seemed to lack for a variety of activities. Above Left: Aileen Moore and the G.C. Choir perform at their annual talent show. Above: Percussionists Bryan Vallandingham and Sara Brown perform during halftime festivities at a G.C. football game. Left: Some of our seniors really enjoyed the Senior Breakfast which helped finalize the school year for them.

G.C.'S FRESHMEN

THE FRESHMAN CLASS HAS ARRIVED ON CAMPUS! Converging from all parts of Greenup County, many of our Freshmen already knew lots of people from their middle school days. The G.C. building was new to them, however, since many had never been beyond the gym. It didn't take them long to settle right in. Class members elected Blake Gillum, Scott Griffith, Brooke Skeens, and Chris Mullins as their class officers.

One Balmy Evening In Spring

Ryan Hart and Sarah Griith coming the arch to enter the festivities.

Sean Reeder and Stefanie Fraley add their own decorative touch to the evenig.

Josh Hickle and Nikki Pierce run the gauntlet of curious onlookers as they get ready to present their invitations.

The old school building didn't recognize itself as the juniors labored intensley to totally perform a metamorphosis on it and turn into something quite magical and enchanting. Beautifully attired dancers kept the dance floor busy on this special night that would be endlessly etched in the memories of those who attended.

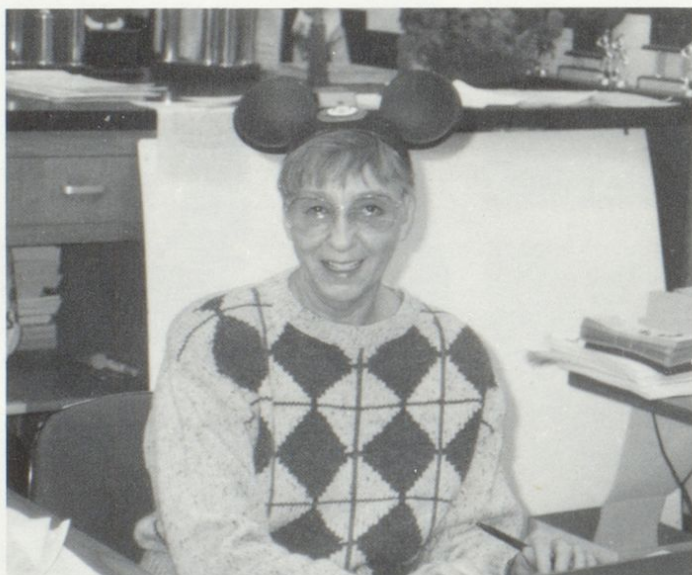

A Journey Just Begun--Class Of 1996

Seniors spend final moments together as they come to grips with the reality of graduation. Top Left and Center Left: Groups of nervous classmates wait impatiently as they come together for one last time. Top Right: Ryan Hart's mother, terminally ill with cancer, proudly heard her son make his speech. Center Right: Principal Mike Thoroughman presents his son Blake Thoroughman with his diploma. Bottom Left: The diploma and the rose await a graduate. Jenifer Cantrell was mistress of ceremonies for the evening, making sure everyone was directly on target.

Behind The Scenes At G.C.H.S.

Our Superintendent And Our Board of Education

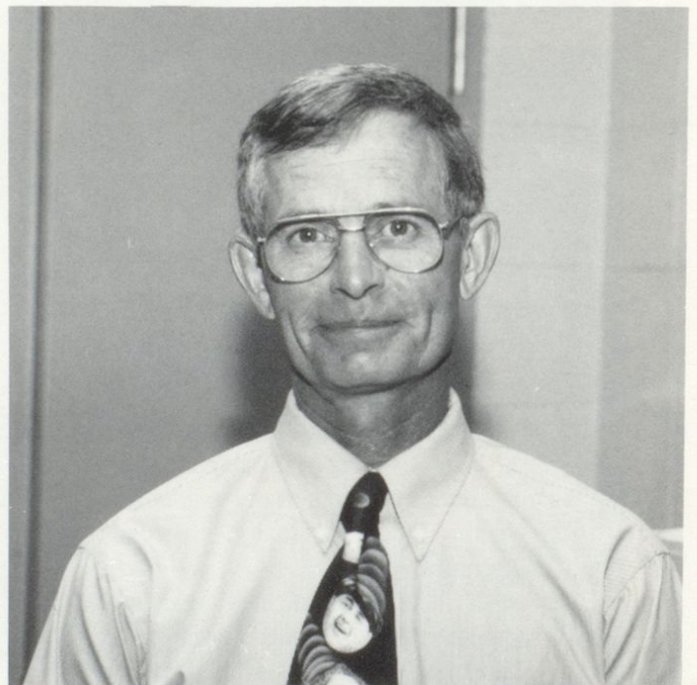

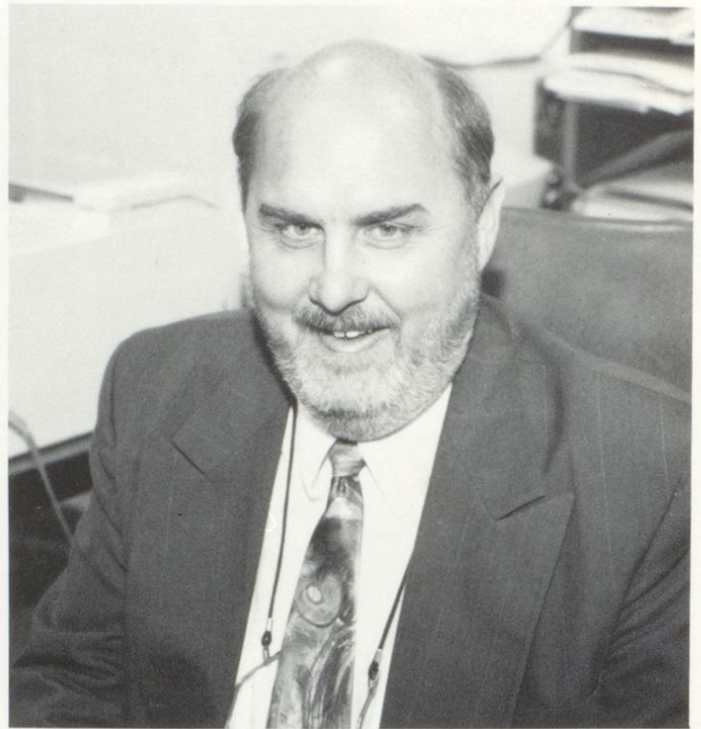

Superintendent Kent Barnes has served our school district for three years. His decision-making has played an important part in molding G.C. into what is today. He and his wife Debby reside in Sand Hill. They are the parents of Justin and Robin.

Board of Education members are a true force for leadership in the education process as it works in our system. Pausing for our camera just prior to presenting diplomas during our graduation ceremony are, standing, Superintendent Barnes and Board Chairman Danny Craft. Seated are Diane Howard and Barb Nicholls. On stage during graduation: Mr. Barnes, Mr. Craft, Mr. Reed, Mrs. Royster, Mr. Williamson, Mrs. Nicholls, and Mrs. Howard.

The Bosses--G.C.'s Principals

The people in charge of making G.C. run smoothly and safely, by the very nature of the job, must be highly organized and must be "people" oriented since most of their day to day routine involves dealing with people. Top Left: The principal of the vo-tech school is Marsha Martin. Top Right: The head honcho himself is Principal Mike Thoroughman. Above Left: Assistant Principle John Reed, and Above Right: Assistant Principal Jim Williamson.
