ONE LAST LOOK

AT THE WAY WE WERE

G.C. was undergoing drastic changes in '91, both outside and inside our physical plant. The construction of a new vocational wing in our stadium parking lot demolished established parking patterns. Inside, we enclosed our library and endured the application of a beautiful new wood gym floor. It definitely became a year to take one last look at the way we were.

We were under construction in '91. Check out the changes!

ONE LAST LOOK

People plus studies plus activities of every sort equaled another stupendous year at G.C. in '91. The ballgames, the dances, the fun times, the tests, the stimulating conversations, the lasting friendships — all these contributed special memories to every time and season of '91. One more time, we take ONE LAST LOOK at the faces and places that shaped our lives this year.

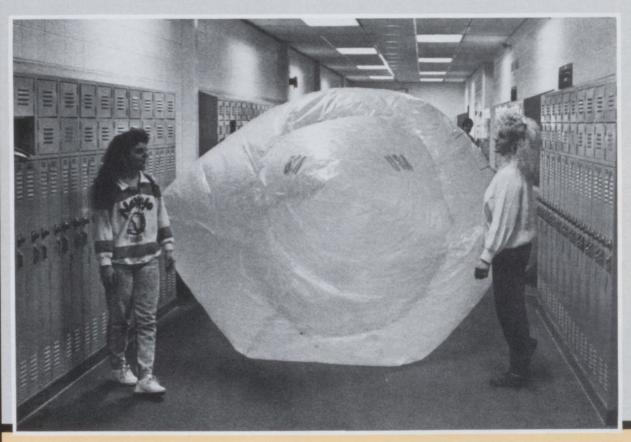

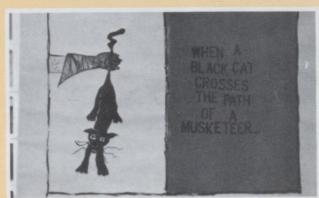

Quarterback Steve Dowdy dug out of the mud which prevailed at the state play-offs.

LOOK AT WHAT'S GOING ON!

Not just being, but becoming. There was a big difference in just existing and in changing and expanding our horizons. G.C. students stretched to the limits in '91, involving ourselves in every available activity and project. We took risks, stretched ourselves a little. And it paid off in a most unique year.

Above, Naomi Waddell and Trina Deer admire the space ship replica constructed by the child services class as a teaching tool. Right, Talented art students supplied G.C. with plenty of visual school spirit in '91.

LOOKING GOOD! From across the county we came, merging the various elementary and middle schools into the original blend that became G.C. Thirteen hundred originals equaled one unique high school.

Mike Scott let loose with a trombone solo, while Tracy Claxon leaped into action.

ONE LAST LOOK ORIGINAL BLEND '91

Freshman Janna Scherer enjoyed a moment in English class. The J.V. cheerleaders demonstrated their awardwinning routine. Below, Kristina Williamson in lunch-table conversation.

SCENES OF '91

JUST PLAIN CLASSY

Why be normal when we could be extraordinary? The mixed chorus, under the direction of Ms. Hobbs, gave one of its many outstanding performances of '91. Long hours of practice culminated in a classic blend of voices full of G.C. pride.

MAKING A STATEMENT

"We've got spirit, yes we do!" were familiar words at G.C. this year. G.C. students and teachers not only said it but demonstrated it as we supported all academics, activities, music, and sports. We dressed the part and attended the activities as we never passed up the chance to show our G.C. spirit and enthusiasm!

Above, band members Jason Plummer, Amy Hamilton, and Allison Burnette show their spirit musically. Left, Rhonda Nickell represented G.C. with pride as she ran a cross-country meet.

RAINIE

Elected by popular vote of G.C. students, Senior Rainie Munn reigned over football homecoming activities. Rainie is a member of our championship softball team.

The football homecoming court:
Seated, '89 Queen Linda Longfellow,
Front: Tammy Crisp, Tonya Daniels,
Rainie Munn, Jennifer Warnock.
Second, Shelly Stephens, Tanya
Royster, Carla Hennecke, Becky
Bentley, Amber Cooper. Third: Tina
Dalton, Amanda Blalock, Jaynie
Dowdy, Sara Sargent. Top: Jennie
Nolen, Alana Lee, Brandi Traylor,
Heather Young, Amanda Couch.

HOMECOMING

LISA

Senior Lisa Marko was elected by the G.C. student body to reign as our basketball homecoming queen. Lisa is a member of our nationally-famous varsity cheerleading squad. Below, Jan Jordan crowns the new queen.

These lovely ladies were selected as class representatives from among the seventeen candidates. Sophomore Andrea Reeves, Senior Jennie Preston, Queen Lisa, Junior Vanessa Stambaugh, Freshman Alana Lee.

ROYALTY '91

The spirit that is G.C. was captured in the enthusiasm of these pep section members. They made their own excitement at pep rallies and ball games and contributed to the team's successes with their never-ending support. They certainly became a familiar scene in '91.

CAPTURE THE FEELING

The G.C. dance team definitely captured the feeling in '91 and translated it into electrifying performances at halftime during basketball season. New at G.C. this year, the dance team made an impressive addition to our extra-curricular activity lineup.

PEOPLE

ONE LAST LOOK — SENIORS

Seniors developed a special kind of friendship through our four years at G.C.H.S. We shared our happy memories, precious dreams, private jokes no one else would understand. We knew our strengths and weaknesses, praised each other's victories, joined in each other's defeats. Together we made the bad times better with good times and laughter. With a bit of sadness mingled with anticipation of the future, we take "One Last Look" at the Class of '91.

SENIORS

Senior faces were everywhere during our four years at G.C. What better place to find them one last time than pressed between the pages of the '91 Musketeer?

ECHOES OF '91

Winding down from four years of work and play, seniors found themselves getting sentimental about old G.C. They looked backward and forward at the same time. Hit by the sudden realization that it was almost over, seniors took one last long look at the people and things that had been part of their home away from home.

SOPHOMORES LOOKING AHEAD

Elected by their classmates to lead them into the Class of '93 were Front: Angela Wells. Middle: Josh Younce and Natalie Woods. Top: Misty Bear.

Sophomores have always been considered the in-between class. The Class of '93, however, exhibited some real talent and leadership for G.C. They had their act together and contributed much to school spirit and academic performance of our student body. They pretended to have never heard of the "notorious sophomore slump" and stepped out to distinguish themselves and to begin proud, new traditions. If '91 was anything to judge by, then the next two years should be fantastic! Sophomores: Looking ahead with individuality and innovation.
