GREENUP STUDENTS TAKE FAIR HONORS

County Agricultural And School Exhibit To End

Special To The Times
GREENUP, Sept. 18—Teachers and parents of Greenup High school students are proud of the showing they made in the second annual county agricultural and school fair which closes tonight.

Greenup students placed first in all events entered except three.

Events in which they won first place were: Best specimen of handwriting in high school, Jane Gambill; best specimen of handwriting in eighth grade, Ruth Gambill; best exhibit of community resources by school; best health poster, Mildred Veach, sophomore; best English poster and best original drawing or painting, Blanche Lee Wellman; best book of poems written by students; best biology notebook, Elmer Heaberlin, junior; best science project, sophomore class. Raceland won first place for best school booth and Wurtland's English project was judged best. Greenup placed second in these two classifications.

Greenup Students Win County Fair Honors

GREENUP: James Stuart, superintendent of the Greenup City Schools, announced Saturday that students there were outstanding in the school events of the Greenup County Fair.

The judging of the school events is as follows:

Best handwriting specimen: High School. Jane Gambill, Greenup.

Best handwriting specimen: Grades — Ruth Gambill, Greenup, 8th grade.

Best exhibit of Community Resources: Greenup 8th grade.

Best Health Poster: Mildred Veach, Greenup sophomore.

Best English Poster: Blanche Lee Wellman, Greenup senior.

Best original drawing and painting: Blanche Lee Wellman, Greenup.

Best book of poems: Greenup High School.

Best biology notebook: Elmer Heaberlin, Jr., Greenup.

Best Science Project: Greenup High sophomore class.

Best School booth: Raceland High, first, Greenup, second.

Best English project: Wurtland High School first, Greenup, second.

Greenup Tigers Upset Ramblers Friday Night

GREENUP — An under-rated Greenup High School Tiger quintet Friday night before a screaming crowd of partisan fans "Trumanized" the Raceland Ramblers by a score of 44 to 30.

The Ramblers had been heavy favorites to trim the Tigers. Coach Elmer Heaberlin's lads turned in an early lead and from there they coasted to a fourteen point victory over the highly touted, Raceland team.

The Tigers, lacking in reserve strength, most certainly did not lack in aggressiveness and accuracy. They kept the nets white hot with field goals from all angles of the floor.

Coach Denver ... put the service ...

Greenup Plays Ramblers Tonight At Eight

GREENUP: Coach Elmer Heaberlin's Greenup High Tigers will meet the strong Raceland Ramblers here tonight in what should prove to be a real test for the latter quintet.

The Ramblers were very impressive in their opening game against South Portsmouth. They walloped the down-river quintet by a score of 67 to 36.

Greenup edged the Russell Ma-roon in a see-saw game last Tuesday night by a score of 28 to 25.

Two Greenup Students Will Be Honored

GREENUP HIGH SCHOOL NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED

Mr. James M. Stuart was notified this week by Mr. D. J. Hartman of Los Angeles, secretary of the National High School Poetry association, that the following poems written by Greenup high school students have been accepted for publication in the Anthology of High School Poetry. This book is to be published in the spring.

The following poems have been accepted for publication:

"My Teacher Told Me To," by Ann Everman; "Spring," by Betty Jean Royster; "Nature's Paint Brush," submitted by Laura Ellen Sparks; "Sights at Night," by Shirley Ann Potter.

The poems come from regular classwork in the English Department. Mrs. Lovell Liles is the English teacher.

Greenup High Debating Club Had Meeting

GREENUP: The Debating Club of Greenup High School met for the first time at the school Tuesday afternoon.

Last season under the direction of Mrs. Lovell H. Liles the Greenup High team won second place at the district tournament held at Morehead. The team was composed of the late Margaret Bonzo, Alice Burchett, Roxie Hannah and Nora Cales.

James M. Stuart, superintendent of the Greenup Schools, said that the subject for debate this year would be: Resolved, That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government.

The following students are members of the club: Bill Evans, Ruth Bruce, Patty Baker, Ananelle Hannah, Alice Burchett, Laura Sparks, Janet Kidwell, Eddie Lee Riggs, Mildred Veach, Jon Richards.
